Premium Support

At Your Service

Service account management is all about developing a great relationship with our customers to ensure we provide the most successful support experience. Your Service Account Manager (SAM) develops a close working relationship with your business to gain an in-depth knowledge of your technical support needs. With that knowledge, your SAM will act in your best interest to communicate the business impact of your technical issues as your advocate with SUSE.

- Leveraging technical documentation
- Posting questions in the support forums

As new tools become available, your SAM will ensure that you are aware of these capabilities so that you can take full advantage of them.

INCREASE YOUR OVERALL PRODUCTIVITY

Time is money. And when your systems are down, or critically impacted, you need help fast. When this happens, your SAM coordinates the efforts of the appropriate support staff on behalf of your business. Your SAM will verify that service requests are logged, prioritized and completed appropriately. He or she will also work with support engineers and management teams to facilitate the shortest possible resolution times for your critical issues. Whenever you feel there is a need to escalate an issue, your SAM is your point of contact and will ensure your concern is quickly resolved to your satisfaction—while keeping the wheels of progress moving so you can get your systems back on track and your end users back to work as quickly as possible.

EFFECTIVELY PLAN FOR THE FUTURE

Not only will your SAM react quickly in times of need, he or she can also proactively assist you as you plan for future technology projects, train your staff and more. Your SAM will host regularly scheduled meetings or conference calls to review your support history. During these service reviews, you'll be able to discuss support challenges and your SAM will help resolve these concerns. Based on your history and feedback, your SAM will make observations or recommendations for training opportunities, process improvements, health checks, on-site visits and other activities that will improve your business. As you discuss future technology plans, your SAM will recommend, schedule and coordinate any number of projects related to your plans, such as consulting services, scheduled standby, on-site support or anything else that would help make your project successful.

LEVERAGE INNOVATIVE SUSE SUPPORT TOOLS

We provide you with access to innovative support tools that are instrumental in keeping your systems up to date—and resolve even the toughest technical issues. However, these tools aren't much help if you're not familiar with them, so your SAM ensures that you fully understand how to use our support tools and award-winning websites, including:

GET STARTED

Maintaining an accurate and up-to-date list of authorized contacts within our support organization is critical to receiving the technical support you need, when you need it. Your SAM helps you become familiar with our Customer Center, where you will manage those contacts throughout the duration of your service agreement. And, your SAM will assist in maintaining an accurate contact and resource list, facilitate regularly scheduled calls to review contact lists and explain all of your support entitlements.

Make Your Voice Heard

Your SAM is a great mechanism for providing feedback for improvements at SUSE. We welcome you to provide suggestions through your SAM regarding topics such as product development, sales, marketing and support. Because your SAM is your personal advocate, this feedback is delivered promptly to the respective groups within our company. In addition, your SAM acts on feedback provided through customer satisfaction surveys to ensure our processes are always improving.

The Bottom Line

Service Account Management has proven to be one of the most valuable customer services we provide. Your SAM will understand your business needs, as well as the hard-working gears of the SUSE support organization, to ensure we provide you with the best possible support experience—quickly and easily.
