

Register SUSE Codes

In the SUSE Customer Center

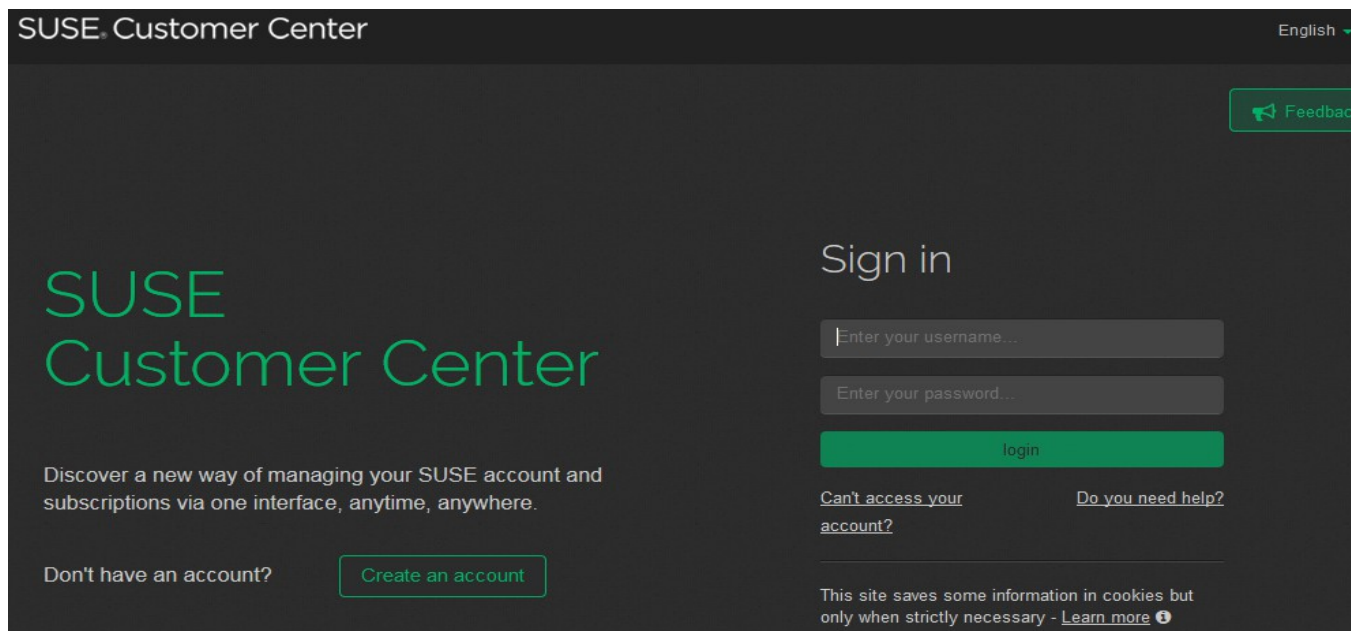

PartnerNet Team

Locate the product you need a registration code for and select “request code”. The code will then be displayed.

After you have the registration code go to <https://scc.suse.com/login> and log into the SUSE Customer Center if this is a new subscription.

Select “Manually activate subscriptions”

Select appropriate box for single or multiple subscriptions.

The screenshot shows the SUSE Customer Center interface. At the top, the navigation bar includes 'SUSE Customer Center', 'LBULLARD-NOVELL-COM', 'English', and 'Lona Bullard'. Below this, a secondary navigation bar contains 'Dashboard', 'Organization', 'Subscriptions', 'Systems', and 'Support'. The 'Dashboard' link is circled in orange. A green 'Feedback' button is located in the top right corner. The main heading is 'Activate your Subscriptions'. Below the heading, a progress indicator shows two steps: '1 ENTER REGISTRATION CODE(S)' and '2 ASSOCIATE TO AN ORGANIZATION'. The first step is active. The main content area asks 'Please select how you would like to proceed with the activation:'. There are two options: 'Manually Activate Subscription' and 'Activate multiple Subscriptions'. The 'Manually Activate Subscription' option is highlighted with an orange oval and includes a text input field for 'Enter a registration code...', a checkbox for 'I accept the terms and conditions', and a green 'Manually Activate Subscription' button. The 'Activate multiple Subscriptions' option is a grey button with a CSV icon and text: 'Activate multiple Subscriptions' and 'By uploading a CSV file with registration codes'.

From the Dashboard you will see your Subscriptions, click in the Subscriptions section to get to the details.

The screenshot displays the SUSE Customer Center dashboard. At the top, the navigation bar includes 'Dashboard', 'Organization', 'Subscriptions', 'Systems', and 'Support'. A 'Feedback' button is located in the top right corner. Below the navigation bar, there is a red banner with the text 'Read more about Ghost vulnerability and how to patch your systems' and a 'View more' button. A 'Warnings' section follows, featuring a red bar with a warning icon and the text '1 Expired subscription'. The main dashboard area is divided into several sections: 'SUSE Server' (with a '1 Subscriptions' card circled in orange), 'SUSE Server Extensions' (with four sub-cards for High Availability, Real Time, Geo Clustering, and Long Term Service, all showing '0'), 'SUSE Manager' (with a green card showing 'SUSE Manager' and 'More information'), and 'Other Products' (with a list of products like SUSE Cloud, SUSE Studio, SUSE Point of Service, and SUSE Desktop, each with a '0' count). At the bottom, there are 'Management tools' (with 'Manually activate subscriptions', 'Manage users', and 'Manage your organizations') and 'Recent activities' (with the message 'There is no recent activity registered').
